CRT CHAYEINU

Message From Rabbi Judy Cohen-Rosenberg

My mother, as I'm sure all mothers are, was a significant influence on me. Her passing left me bereft. However, the outpouring of sympathy CRT members have shown me and my family throughout my mother's illness through our period of mourning has helped enormously.

Mike, Micah, Leora and I are truly blessed to be a part of this Jewish community. Every need we had during shiva was attended to with care, and if food is love, we are surely beloved.

What comforts me most is the knowledge that your actions of Chesed Shel Emet (righteous acts that go unrequited) are not unique to me. I have seen many of you perform these mitzvot for countless others who are bereaved. You are truly a caring community.

It will take many more days before I am able to thank each of you personally, but for now, please accept these public thanks. I am grateful to all who attended Mildred's funeral, visited us during shiva, sent food, led minyans, made contributions, and were particularly thoughtful and kind in seeing to my and my family's well being. If you see me crying, it is not due to regret or loss. I was ready to let my mom go. My tears are an expression of how overwhelmed I have been by your kindness. They are tears of pride in my community.

The mitzvot you performed on my mother's behalf are ones we always pray we never have to perform again, knowing well that when called upon, we will. I have seen you do it many times before and now have experienced it first hand. I wish we were less practiced at them, but am comforted knowing that I am part of a very compassionate and understanding community, a family at its best. Thank you all so very much.

Rabbi Judy

Presidents Message

Chanukah? You mean to tell me it's time for Chanukah? Well fry my latkes, this year is really going by fast. Since you brought it up (you did, didn't you), don't forget to come to our Chanukah dinner on December 18 or that the students can shop at the Chanukah Boutique on December 6.

Please be sure to look at the Kol Nidre pledge list in this issue. On behalf of CRT I want to thank everyone who made a pledge. You have decided to be part of the future by making a pledge today. Take a look; you will see the names of parents and even children who made pledges. Some of these children are young adults and some adults. Amazing that's all I can say. If you have not made a pledge it's not too late, we'd love to be able to publish a revised list (subtle hint).

The Journal and the Auction will be here before you know it!!! We need ads and items for both.

Were you at the Catering Showcase? I'm still full. Once again Diane and Art put together a great evening to showcase our panel of preferred caterers and our room rental services. Contrary to popular opinion I was not even in the building when Celeste won the raffle. Gift cards make great presents.

Enduring image of November: Austin Aronoff carrying the Torah around the sanctuary faster than Johnny Damon going to third against the Phillies. And Austin had a bigger smile on his face than Damon did. It's a moment like that that sticks with you and represents everything we do here at CRT.

I was trying to think of something profound to say for the holiday season. But I'm limited so I'll do the best I can. This holiday season give something to someone else. Maybe give a meal, a laugh, support, a friendly ear. Send a card to a soldier who serves our country. Tell your family you love them. Sit down and count your blessings. Then share something with someone else.

Did I mention that gift cards make great presents?

This month's books: I finished Rashi's Daughters, Book 2: Miriam by Maggie Anton. It's the second of three books set in medieval France starting around 1070 and is historical fiction about the great scholar Salomon Ben Isaac, better known as RASHI (Rabbi Shlomo Itzchaki) and his daughters.

So naturally I followed that up with Sandy Koufax: A Lefty's Legacy by Jane Leavy. Ok not a smooth segue but it works for me. Koufax is pretty complex and apparently not understood by many because he likes to keep his private life private. He comes across favorably in this book which tells his story set against the perfect game he threw towards the end of his career. Every other chapter alternates between an inning of the game and his history. Remember when he refused to pitch on Yom Kippur?

I get most of these books from our CRT library; you should really check it out – pun intended. Someone recently asked me if I read all these books. I do, I enjoy reading. If you have ever seen our son Benjamin you would know it's definitely genetic.

Once again I begin my annual "don't take it out on them because they were born in December" appeal. Just ask anyone born in December, they will be happy to explain what this means.

Sisterhood News December 2009

Our annual Membership Dinner was held on October 26th. The Membership committee planned a wonderful evening of dining and entertainment. Heartfelt thanks to Lynda Temple, Jeanie Corn, Linda Glickman, Bonnie Siegel, and Connie Egelman for planning this event. The evening was enjoyed by all who attended.

A good time was had by all at our annual Family Bingo Night on November 2nd. The games were fast and furious. Thanks to all who helped to make this a fun evening. In following established tradition, the older teen winners donated their prize selections to the younger children and everyone went home a winner.

Our Fall Rummage Sale on November 21st and 22nd was a great success. I want to thank everyone who donated clothing and goods to the event; without your donations rummage would not be possible. Whatever was not sold was in turn donated to the Eastern Farm Workers and they were very grateful and appreciative.

On Sunday December 6th the Hanukkah Boutique will take place in the Youth Lounge from 10 am-12noon. We will have gifts for all ages, including items from our Judaica cabinet. All the Religious school classes and all CRT members are invited to browse and shop the boutique for your holiday needs.

Join us on Monday December 7th at 7pm for the Sisterhood Holiday Party and meeting. Enjoy a quiet evening out with your Sisterhood friends and share your ideas for the holidays. For a minimal cost, dinner will be catered by one of CRT's preferred caterers. If you are interested in attending, please call (334-3203) or email Susan Praga at (gubster@optonline.net).

We will be at Border's Books in Westbury to staff their gift wrapping table on Sunday December 20th from 9am-12mid. Please contact Susan Praga to volunteer your time throughout the day. Stop in to purchase a few holiday gifts with gift cards from Barry, and we'll wrap the gifts for you. It's a great way to support CRT.

Support Sisterhood while you celebrate a special day. For $36, we will have a special occasion cake at the oneg following Friday night services to mark a birthday, anniversary, engagement, wedding or any simcha. Call Patty Aronoff at 414-8150 for more details.

Please come down to a meeting or event. We welcome your participation and ideas. The Sisterhood is the heart of the temple. Next meeting is December 7th.

Caring Community Committee

.CRT's Caring Community Committee is here to help you. We are Temple members ready to lend a hand to other Temple members. We can provide rides to Temple for those who don't drive, make a meal for someone who is ill or recently home from the hospital, provide simple home repairs like changing light bulbs, or run an occasional errand.

As part of our activities, the committee periodically sends token gift to Temple members' children who are away at college. If you would like your child to be included, please supply the committee with their college address and e-mail address.

If you are in need of our services, please call Ken Praga at 334-3203 or email at gubster@optonline.net.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS.....

The Men's Club had two very enjoyable and successful activities in November. On Sunday, November 1st, another lucky group took the special private tour of ESPN's main studios in Bristol, CT courtesy of Alan Lissauer and his son. From what I heard, everyone had a great time and got to meet a few sports personalities. The question is whether we can go to the well a third time and do it again next year.

On Tuesday, November 17th, we held our annual membership dinner. Attendance was great – more than 40 members – and everyone seemed to enjoy the catered food of Brendel's. They enjoyed it so much, in fact, that we ran low after first helpings and need to bring out bagels, tuna and salads donated by Steve Aronoff from his son's Bar Mitzvah the previous Saturday.

The return speaker (for a third time), Judge Edward McCarty, was again informative, entertaining and even provocative (in a good way) in his comprehensive discussion about the various players in the Mideast. As he noted himself, we can only hope (or pray) that his less-than-optimistic predictions do not come true this time.

I want to thank everyone who helped on the dinner, including Russ Graham, who donated some items for a raffle, Ira Warshawsky, who helped bring in Judge McCarty, and those who cleaned up afterwards.

For the last time, the World Series pool, which I put together only a couple of days before the Series began, was not "fixed." Paul Teller and I won it fair and square.

Things will be slowing down now for a while for the Men's Club, with only our regular meeting scheduled in December (the 1st). After that, we have a "bagel breakfast" scheduled, but not yet planned, for January 17th, a joint event with the Sisterhood on 2/6, and our Coffee House on 3/6. We'll have more details on these later.

Regards,
Ed Temple

Fundraising News.....

Wow, what a month for letters; I received so many that I nearly missed the deadline for publishing them. They were excellent unfortunately I can only share these two with you this month.

Dear Barry:

When I went to your website last week to order gift cards, I noticed that some stores on your order page had gone out of business. Are you still offering those cards or are you having a problem updating the website?

Sincerely,
Detailed Online Buyer from East Meadow

Dear Detailed,

Yes, there are a few stores that unfortunately went out of business over the last year. Although those cards can't be used anymore, I thought that if someone wanted to buy some as collector's items, I may be able to get a few of them. Actually, the website was updated this week; those stores have been removed and a bunch of new ones were added including: Michael's, Walgreen's, Pier One Imports, Build-A-Bear and more. Please check it out by going to the CRT website and click on the order gift cards button, you'll be amazed.

Dear Barry:

I have a few business contacts that may be able to donate some very cool items for the Goods & Services Auction in May, but I'm not sure how or when to approach them. I thought that I would wait until April, which would give me time to figure out the proper way to ask them. Do I need any documentation to show them? Do you have any suggestions?

Sincerely,
B to B from Westbury

Dear B to B,

Thank you for offering to solicit your business contacts for auction items. Actually, the sooner that you approach them for a donation the better it will be. If you need documentation, I can provide you with an autographed photo of the Auctioneer that you can show them. On second thought, it might be more effective to contact any member of the Fundraising Committee, who will provide you with an official auction solicitation letter.

The next Fundraising Meeting will be held at 7:30 pm on Thursday, December 3rd at Dan Kotcher's House.

If you have any questions, please submit them to the temple office or e-mail them directly to me (barrypelofsky@verizon.net).

Check out the updated gift card website (www.typezdg.com/crt) or link up through the CRT web site.

Preschool News

November was a very busy month as we continued with our autumn projects and took nature walks. Before we knew it, Thanksgiving arrived with lots of turkeys and discussions of "What we are Thankful for"?

As part of our autumn unit, we examined seeds from gourds, pumpkins, and corn. The children compared these seeds using several of their senses. They touched, tasted, smelled and compared different sizes, shapes, and amounts.

We've been using leaves in many math, science and art projects and reading and singing about them (also dancing and marching in them).

We had our multi-cultural luncheon and it was a great success. The food was delicious and enjoyed by all. Each family sent in a dish (with an explanation) from their country of origin. We collected lots of canned food and donated it to St. Brigids food drive. Thank you to all of our very generous families and to Bonnie who had to carry all those heavy bags of food.

We're looking forward to our Chanukah party on Tuesday, December 15th. We are going to spin dreidels and eat lots of latkes and sing songs and dance - lots of fun.

We have new pets - 2 Dwarf African Frogs. They're tiny, like fish, and stay in a container with water. They are available for holidays - especially the 2 week holiday break in December. If anyone wants to babysit our frogs, please let Marcia or Bonnie know.

Marilyn H. Tahl Religious School News.....

School continues to run well with its very full schedule of activities. Attendance has been high despite all the illness going around; thank you, parents, for getting your children here on a regular basis.

And thank you to both our Sunday and Wednesday teaching staffs for keeping the school running at such a high level. Particular thanks go to our teenagers who get up on Sunday mornings and rush here after public school on Wednesdays to assist the adult teachers.

We enjoyed listening to and were inspired by our School Choir as it performed at the East Meadow Community Interfaith Service at the East Meadow United Methodist Church prior to Thanksgiving. Jackie Martin, the Religious School music teacher, prepared the children well, and they sounded great. Many kudos were given to the children by those in attendance.

Those singing at the service were Courtney Aronoff, Elizabeth and William Bekerman, Robyn

Beeber, Jason Glickman, Nathan Jainchill, Sarah and Rebekah Martin, Zachary Natelson, and Julia Tellerman.

The student teachers are currently planning the Chanukah program for Religious School on December 20. We look forward to seeing what they come up with this year.

Have a great Chanukah!

Bob Stein,
Educator/Administrator

Ritual Committee.....

We have had some wonderful Shabbat services over the past few weeks, including a presentation by the Eastern Farmworkers describing the good works they do and an inspirational presentation by Matthew Rodriguez, a 15 year old boy who started a foundation called Cleats 4 Kids when he was 7 years old. Matthew and his foundation collect baseball equipment which he brings to the Dominican Republic twice a year to distribute to very poor families which can't buy bats, balls, shoes, uniforms, even caps for their children. We are collecting equipment for Cleats 4 Kids in our lobby. Clean out your garages and basements and bring baseball equipment to the Temple. Rachel Pastenak brings her magnificent voice to services once or twice a month, and guest singers David Berkowitz and Amy Dattner and Peter Levy help lead services once a month. Our Youth Choir sings at Family Shabbat each month, and choir members ably fill in at services when these people are not officiating. Mark on your calendars December 11 and December 18. David Berkowitz will be here on the 11th to help us start Chanukah, and on the 18th Rachel Pasternak will be here for the last night of Chanukah. On that night we will also have our popular Chanukah Shabbat Congregational Dinner. We hope to see all of you on these dates.

November 2009

Dear Congregant,

As we enter our fifty-second year, it is time, once again, to honor members of our Temple family who have dedicated their time and effort to our congregation. Art and Diane Kleiner and Andrew and Rabbi Deanna Pasternak are more than deserving of this honor. They have given of themselves to the temple over the years in many ways:

- Art Kleiner served as the Temple's President in 2004-2006, was co-President of The Men's Club, and served as chair of the Membership Committee. Diane served on the School Board for many years, has been Vice President of Sisterhood and currently serves as its Recording Secretary. Both Art and Diane also run the Room Rental Committee, which contributes significantly to our finances.
- Andrew and Deanna, who was recently ordained as a rabbi, have been members of CRT for more than 35 years. Deanna served on the Executive Board as Vice President and was instrumental in establishing the School Board at CRT. Both she and Andrew have taught in our religious school.

The annual Journal is our most important fundraiser. A successful Journal means that we can continue to support and fund the many activities and services we currently provide, as well as maintain the level of our fine professional staff. While each member family is responsible for selling or placing at least $100 in ads, we hope you will go beyond the minimum and sell as many ads as possible. You can approach local merchants or business associates, as well as friends and family. Many families take out personal ads to express their good wishes to the honorees. In spite of the current economic backdrop, we urge you to seek ads wherever possible.

This year's dinner will be held on April 10, 2010 in the Social Hall at CRT. We are very excited about what will surely be a joyous celebration, as our Journal dinner dances always are. Please be aware that you must sell (or place) at least $275 in ads per couple, or $150 for a single person in order to attend this dinner. The deadline for ads is March 7, 2010. Please don't delay, but begin selling ads right away. If you have questions, feel free to contact us, or call the Temple office.

We look forward to seeing you at the dinner in April!
